

BioCryst Pharmaceuticals and Idera Pharmaceuticals
Reschedule Meetings to Vote on Proposed Merger

BioCryst and Idera Special Meetings to Be Held on July 10, 2018

New Clinical Data on Idera's IMO-2125 Program Will Be Available Prior to Vote

RESEARCH TRIANGLE PARK, N.C. and EXTON, P.A. — April 10, 2018 — BioCryst Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NASDAQ:BCRX) (“BioCryst”) and Idera Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NASDAQ:IDRA) (“Idera”) today jointly announced that they have each rescheduled their respective Special Meetings of Stockholders (each, a “Special Meeting”) to vote on the proposed merger of BioCryst and Idera to July 10, 2018 at 10:00 AM ET.

- BioCryst will hold its Special Meeting at its corporate offices in Durham, North Carolina. BioCryst stockholders of record as of May 28, 2018 will be entitled to vote at the BioCryst Special Meeting.
- Idera will hold its Special Meeting at its corporate offices in Exton, Pennsylvania. Idera stockholders of record as of May 28, 2018 will be entitled to vote at the Idera Special Meeting.

BioCryst and Idera are each rescheduling their respective Special Meetings, following investor feedback, to provide stockholders adequate time to consider new clinical data from Idera regarding its IMO-2125 program, which will be presented at the American Society of Clinical Oncology (“ASCO”) meeting being held June 1-5, 2018 in Chicago.

The BioCryst Board of Directors unanimously recommends that BioCryst stockholders vote “FOR” the proposed merger at the BioCryst Special Meeting.

The Idera Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Idera stockholders vote “FOR” the proposed merger at the Idera Special Meeting.

BioCryst’s stockholders as of the May 28, 2018 record date who have previously voted, and do not wish to change their vote, will not need to vote again at the rescheduled July 10, 2018 BioCryst Special Meeting.

Idera’s stockholders as of the May 28, 2018 record date who have previously voted, and do not wish to change their vote, will not need to vote again at the rescheduled July 10, 2018 Idera Special Meeting.

BioCryst and Idera will file amended proxy materials with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) related to the rescheduled Special Meetings and will mail the updated materials to stockholders in due course. The amended definitive proxy statement will also be made available at www.iderapharma.com and www.biocryst.com, respectively (in the “Investors” section) and on the SEC website at www.sec.gov.

About BioCryst

BioCryst designs, optimizes and develops novel small-molecule medicines that address both common and rare conditions. BioCryst has several ongoing development programs including BCX7353, an oral treatment for hereditary angioedema, galidesivir, a potential treatment for filoviruses, and a preclinical program to develop oral Alk-2 inhibitors for the treatment of fibrodysplasia ossificans progressive (FOP).

RAPIVAB® (peramivir injection), a viral neuraminidase inhibitor for the treatment of influenza, is BioCryst’s first approved product and has received regulatory approval in the U.S., Canada, Japan, Taiwan and Korea. Post-marketing commitments for RAPIVAB are ongoing, as well as activities to support regulatory approvals in other territories. Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are based on assumptions and are subject to risks and uncertainties, and important factors that could cause actual events or results to differ materially from Idera’s or BioCryst’s plans, estimates or expectations. Given these uncertainties, you should not place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. With respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement between Idera and BioCryst, these factors could include, but are not limited to: (i) Idera or BioCryst may be unable to obtain stockholder approval as required for the mergers; (ii) conditions to the closing of the mergers may not be satisfied; (iii) the mergers may involve unexpected costs, liabilities or delays; (iv) the effect of the announcement of the mergers on the ability of Idera or BioCryst to retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with patients, doctors and others with whom Idera or BioCryst does business, or on Idera’s or BioCryst’s operating results and business generally; (v) Idera’s or BioCryst’s respective businesses may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the mergers and disruption of management’s attention due to the mergers; (vi) the outcome of any legal proceedings related to the mergers; (vii) Idera or BioCryst may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; (viii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; (ix) risks that the mergers disrupt current plans and operations and the potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of the mergers; (x) the risk that Idera or BioCryst may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the transactions, or that required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the transactions or result in the imposition of conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits from the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or cause the parties to abandon the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement; (xi) risks that the anticipated benefits of the mergers or other commercial opportunities may otherwise not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (xii) the impact of legislative, regulatory, competitive and technological changes; (xiii) risks relating to the value of the new holding company shares to be issued in the mergers; (xiv) expectations for future clinical trials, the timing and potential outcomes of clinical studies and interactions with regulatory authorities; (xv) the risk that the credit ratings of the combined company or its subsidiaries may be different from what the companies expect; (xvi) economic and foreign exchange rate volatility; (xvii) the continued strength of the medical and pharmaceutical markets; (xviii) the timing, success and market reception for Idera’s and BioCryst’s products; (xix) the possibility of new technologies outdating Idera’s or BioCryst’s products; (xx) continued support of Idera’s or BioCryst’s products by influential medical professionals; (xxi) reliance on and integration of information technology systems; (xxii) the risks associated with assumptions the parties make in connection with the parties’ critical accounting estimates and legal proceedings; (xxiii) the potential of international unrest, economic downturn or effects of currencies, tax assessments, tax adjustments, anticipated tax rates, raw material costs or availability, benefit or retirement plan costs, or other regulatory compliance costs; and (xxiv) other risks to the consummation of the mergers, including the risk that the mergers will not be consummated within the expected time period or at all. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed mergers, are more fully discussed in the joint proxy statement/prospectus included in the Registration Statement filed with the SEC in connection with the proposed mergers. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors presented in the Registration Statement are, considered representative, no such list should be considered a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on BioCryst’s or Idera’s consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Readers are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating these forward-looking statements, and not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Readers should also carefully review the risk factors described in other documents that Idera and BioCryst file from time to time with the SEC. The forward-looking statements in this document speak only as of the date of this document. Except as required by law, Idera and BioCryst assume no obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available in the future.
